

Rayilla Sai Prakash

Hyderabad, India

Email: rayillasaiprakash@gmail.com

Phone: +91 7032543541

Research Profile

My research interests focus on sociolinguistics, multilingualism, language variation and change, language contact, migration, and heritage language maintenance. I am particularly interested in intergenerational linguistic variation, multilingual practices, and contact-induced change among migrant communities.

Research Interests

- Sociolinguistics
- Language Variation and Change
- Migration and Multilingualism
- Language Contact
- Heritage Language Maintenance
- Dialectology
- Linguistic Anthropology

Education

M.A. Linguistics — University college of Arts and Social Sciences, Osmania University (UCASS-OU), Hyderabad, India (2023–2025).

Thesis: Exploring Regional Linguistic Variation in Telangana Telugu: The Karimnagar District in Focus.

M.Sc. Geo-Informatics — University College of Sciences, Osmania University (UCS-OU), Hyderabad, India (2021–2023).

Thesis: Urbanisation Impact on Groundwater Resources: A Geospatial Analysis.

B.Tech. Electronics and Communication Engineering — KITS (JNTUH Affiliated), India (2016–2020)

Research and Conference Presentation

Role of Perception in Spelling Errors: A Case of Telugu Primary School Children
Presented at the All India Conference of Dravidian Linguists (AICDL) 2024.

Research Skills

Linguistic Tools: Praat, ELAN, Phonetic Transcription.

Research Methods: Quantitative Sociolinguistic Analysis, Corpus Development and Linguistic Annotation.

Technical Tools: QGIS, ArcGIS, Spatial Data Analysis

Languages

- Telugu — Native
- English — Fluent
- Hindi — Fluent

Academic Reference

Dr. K. Susheel Kumar

Head, Department of Linguistics

Osmania University

Email: kallojisusheelkumar@gmail.com